DR. GIBBONS'

DISPENSARY,

623 Kearny St.,

Corner Commercial Street,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, the Sad Effects of Youthful Indiscretion (or mean sinning), and Rheumatism successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering with diseases of a private nature from the effects of secret indulgence, from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and body, broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life in this fearful situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, and the Medical Profession look with candor at the horrible, life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has devoted a lifetime especially to study their cases, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate disease without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are the friends of those afflicted with Seminal Weakness, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who advertise all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by their high-sounding phrases from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved seminal indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz.: Self-distrust, confusion of ideas, nervous fears, pains in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, palpitation of the heart, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions on the face, offensive breath, tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frenzy, insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, as above mentioned, to the surest and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not delay a moment, but consult immediately, before they marry, as the consequences resulting upon them may be of the most fearful character.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself specifically to perform the cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating cases, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country. Terms, the full and plain directions, by inclosing Ten Dollars, coin, in registered letter through the P. O. office or through Wells, Fargo & Co.; a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the United States. All communications strictly confidential.

Train Falls Through the Bridge Over the Mississippi—Five Killed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 27.—A mixed train on the St. P. & P. R. R., consisting of twenty-two cars, went through the bridge over the Mississippi, at Brainerd this morning, killing five persons. The bridge is sixty feet high.

A special to the Pioneer Press says: The railroad men threw every obstacle in the way of obtaining the truth. At present it is impossible to say what was the direct cause of the accident, whether the bridge gave way before the train reached the bridge, or whether the train was too heavy for the bridge. The engine went down near the middle of the bridge, and the rear part, piling it on the front part of the train, backing it and forward part of the train, backing it and forward part of the train, piling it on the engine and the rear part, piling it on the front part of the wreck of the bridge. The dead are enumerated as follows: Engineer Warren, White Earth (hurt on the head and chest); Miss Johnson, of Motley (skull fractured and hip broken). These went from the bridge into the river. The caboose struck the bridge first and broke in two. J. F. Sawyer, of Duluth, Lloyd, of Waterville, Mich., and a stranger from Morehead were among the debris on the top of the caboose when they remained till lowered by the wreckers. ## LOSS OF THE "EASTPORT."

WRECKED OFF POINT ARENA—A LADY AND TWO CHILDREN DROWNED.

[S. F. Chronicle, July 25.]

It was learned here yesterday that the steamer Eastport, en route from Coos Bay to this port, loaded with coal, had gone ashore the previous day near Point Arena. From the meager details thus far received it appears that in a dense fog she ran upon a reef on the north side of the Point Arena lighthouse. An intense excitement was immediately created on board, and the passengers, of whom there were sixteen, panic-stricken rushed for a boat hanging over the side of the vessel, and threw themselves into it, when one end gave way and they were precipitated into the water. By clinging to the boat and floating matter, however, all were eventually saved except Mrs. John Armstrong and two of her children, who were lost. All of the officers and crew were saved.

LIST OF PASSENGERS.

The following is a list of passengers on board the Eastport: John Armstrong, wife and three children, Mr. Elliott and son, Thomas Merry, J. Angell, J. Homer Fritz, B. F. Daragne, Geo. Starhart, John Gale, John Stevenson, A. Machado and Master Charles Burrill. The following is a list of the officers: Captain, James F. Whitney; mate, A. N. McDonough; second mate, Henry King; engineer, A. Shepard; second engineer, R. McIver; purser, J. H. Sickles; steward, H. Fitzpatrick; second steward, R. C. Marshall.

THE CAPTAIN.

This is said to be the second time that Capt. Whitney has been in command of the Eastport, and the second time she has run ashore while he was in charge. The first time was on the 30 of April last, when she struck on the Duxbury reef and was considerably damaged. An investigation into the matter was made by the boards of examiners, and Captain Whitney was suspended. The evidence, however, was not of a very injurious character, it having been made tolerable clear that the catastrophe was entirely accidental, and in no way attributable to lack of skill or watchfulness, and the captain's suspension was understood to be more a matter of form than anything else. He had been in charge of vessels a long time before, and nothing against his character as a shipmaster could be proved against him. It is favorable, indeed, was the opinion held regarding him, that he received a certificate on the 1st inst., and was immediately restored to the command of the Eastport. The present was the second trip made by the steamer since he resumed charge of her.

THE STEAMER.

The Eastport was a fine, staunch vessel, built in San Francisco about two years ago. She was 485 tons register, and perfectly equipped in every particular. Her owners are I. L. Pool, R. D. Chandler and George Fritch, who valued her at $85,000. She was insured for $60,000 in local companies. Her cargo of coal was valued at $4,000 and was not insured. The belief is that the steamer will prove a total loss, but nothing can be positively stated on this point as yet. Her agent in this city is Donald Beadle, whose name was prominently brought out in connection with the wreck of the bark Union, and the grave charge of casting her away preferred against Capt. Lindall, who is under a bond of $20,000 to answer.

A VESSEL TO THE RESCUE.

The owners of the wrecked vessel are anxiously waiting for further particulars of the disaster, which from the paucity of telegraphic facilities come very slowly. At five o'clock last evening, the steamer Mary Taylor was dispatched to the scene of the wreck, to bring off the passengers and render the necessary assistance.

The vessel was insured for $40,000, as follows: Union, $10,000; Fireman's Fund, $10,000; State Investment, $5,000; California, $10,000; Commercial, $5,000.

STATEMENT OF A PASSENGER.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The statement of a passenger by the ill-fated steamer Eastport is to the effect that a heavy fog prevailed along the coast at the time of the disaster, and the vessel was running under slow rate of speed, expecting every moment to hear the fog signal at Point Arena. The ship struck at 10 minutes to 2 o'clock in the morning. In an attempt made to lower the surf boat the man at the after davit let it go by the run, upsetting the boat and drowning Mrs John Armstrong, of Randolph, Oregon, and two of her children. At twenty-five minutes after two o'clock the first blast of the fog whistle was heard, and people at Point Arena say the fog had been thick for some hours, and by them the disaster is considered as the result of culpable neglect on the part of officers at the station. At daylight a line was run ashore, and passengers and crew landed and taken to the light house for shelter. Most of the survivors of the wreck arrived in this city by the steamer Mary Taylor last night, and five came down by stage to Donohue early in the evening. The ship lies between two ledges of rocks in a small bight on the north side of the point. She may hold together some days, but there is no hope of saving her. Captain Whitney and officers showed the greatest coolness during the trying moment, and did all they could for the shipwrecked passengers.

The inflation mania which has seized Judge Kelley of Philadelphia, appears to have some complications which are even more dreadful than the principal disorder. The Youngstown, (Ohio), Reporter says of his speech at that place:

"When Judge Kelley reached his peroration, even those who had followed him without disapproval, even with commendation, were shocked and outraged by the plain avowal of his Communism. Every man who had a dollar, every man who expected to earn a dollar, knew that the theatrical orator had invited the mob, the worst elements of society, to rise and rob him. His speech as delivered here in the light of the strikes of last winter, when men were suffering with hunger and cold, the response to the demagogue might have been answered in the strife of classes. As the demagogue shrieked with his fiercest manner his warning to men of means that the mob might gather at their doors and put the knife at their throats, and regenerate the country by re-enacting the horrors of the French revolution, it was a credit to the regard of our citizens for free speech that he was not hissed from the stage. It was in spirit plain Communism, undisguised robbery, a clear proclamation of war of the poor upon the rich, of the wasteful upon the provident. Inflationists were no less outraged than others. Their chagrin and mortification were indeed greater, as it seemed to them like filling a pail with milk and then kicking it over."

THE GREAT FAILURE.

Further Particulars of the Failure of Duncan, Sherman & Co.—Its Effect.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The indebtedness of Duncan, Sherman & Co. is distributed all over the country, a considerable amount being in the form of letters of credit held by travelers. The house was founded in 1838 by Alex. Duncan, Watts then a man & W. Butler Duncan, the latter being the head of the present house. The firm has been in operation about ten years. Great sympathy is expressed for the firm particularly W. B. Duncan.

It is no little surprise to learn that when a house of first-class could get paper discounted at four per cent., the paper of the firm of Duncan, Sherman & Co. was rated at six per cent. The firm, or at least some of its members, have been connected with unfortunate railway enterprises, such as Erie, Atlantic and Great Western, and others of a similar character. It has transpired that the foreign bills of the firm will amount to over £120,000 sterling.

The effect of the suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co. on the stock market was, as usual, in sudden panics, much more serious for a short time than the circumstances of their failure in their bearing upon Wall street ought to have created.

BOSTON, July 27.—State street has not witnessed since the war such a degree of excitement as prevailed there this morning on the announcement of the suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co., of New York. The gold market opened at 112¾, and when the news was received gold was selling at 113¼. Within fifteen minutes the quotations bounded to 115⅝ and afterward receded to 113½. The effect was entirely demoralizing to the market.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The Herald publishes an interview with Wm. B. Duncan, who says there is no truth in reports that he went to Europe to consult with Alex. Duncan for purpose of securing his aid to negotiate loans, that he applied to the Barings Bros. and other European firms for aid, and it was denied; that Union Banking Co. is not loser by the firm to even the amount of a farthing. Duncan says every arrangement is made to pay our Americans abroad with their letters of credit from experiencing any trouble. S. L. M. Barlow, counsel for the suspended firm, says that the rumors that the failure will affect the Union Bank of London are entirely unfounded, as the bank is fully protected, as also are the Barings.

Senor Navarro, Mexican consul, is depositor with Duncan, Sherman & Co. to the full amount of his private fortune, $60,000 or $70,000, and all the moneys belonging to the consulate, but does not seem afraid of loss.

Drexel, Morgan & Co. say Duncan, Sherman & Co. have been largely engaged in cotton transactions of their London agent Mr. Kitchen, of E. Dolge & Co. White four weeks cotton held from 3 cents per pound, suspending has lost 25,000 bales in transit, their loss would be $375,000, not enough to sink them under, but we hear they were largely interested in the Erie, Lake Shore, Michigan and Great Western, and slightly in the Erie railways.

The president of the shoe and leather bank says there is no fear of the crash having any effect on the banks of the country. It would affect Connecticut and Rhode Island especially, as he believed the paper of the house is largely circulated through those States. In the Western States many houses would suffer, but the agencies of the Union bank of London and the bank of New York, say there is no truth in the rumor of its suspension. The only grounds therefor is the fact that the cable announces it has refused to honor the drafts of Duncan, Sherman & Co.

NEW YORK, July 27.—A private cable dispatch announces the failure of the Union Bank of London. Its largest customer in this city, the one with which Duncan, Sherman & Co. transacted a large portion of their foreign business.

More Failures.

Worth & Watson and Martin G. Bann & Co., wholesale grocers, have suspended; liabilities of the former $60,000, the latter small.

Items about the Failures.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The Post says the losses of Duncan, Sherman & Co. on cotton, exceed a million dollars. The Bank of London and Barings Bros. & Co., both have been guaranteed by Alex. Duncan.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Judge Shipman, assignee of Duncan, Sherman & Co., was busy all day to-day with clerks, making examinations of the books. His counsel announced that he was ready for some time. The secretary of the Commercial Warehouse Company stated to-day that the probable liabilities of the company are $1,500,000, and the assets, which are principally cotton, $1,900,000. A full and complete statement of the affairs of the company will be ready in about two weeks. The company lately assisted their creditors for an extension of a month with a view to wind up their business in making advances on goods stored in their sixteen large warehouses, and these goods were left on their hands. He also stated advances were made on Cuban sugar plantations which have been destroyed in the civil war, and that the firm had been dabbling in Cuban bonds.

Eugene Kelly & Co. Pay Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s Checks.

NEW YORK, July 28.—It is stated that drafts and checks of the First National Bank of San Francisco on Duncan, Sherman & Co. will be paid by Eugene Kelly & Co., of this city.

Another Heavy Failure.

NEW YORK, July 28.—It is reported that the Commercial Warehouse Company have failed. Cause, heavy advances are on Cuban crops which early rains destroyed. The house also advanced largely on railroad securities which depreciated.

The Commercial Warehouse Company began business in May, 1867, with a capital of $2,000,000. Paul J. Armor is president, and Jovus F. Navarro vice-president. The stock is owned mostly in Cuba. The embarrassments of the firm are believed to have hastened by political disturbances in Cuba, although directly caused by advances on sugar, and that the company had no connections or relations with Duncan, Sherman & Co. or European correspondents, nor any agencies in this country.

Fisk, of Fisk & Hatch, said a careful inquiry was made among the banks, who reported not more than $100,000 of the paper of the firm held by their customers. Mr. Duer, president of the Bank of the State of New York, where the suspended firm keep their accounts, said his bank held some $300,000 or $400,000, securities of the firm, all of which was available stock.

And Still Another.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Jno. Mason & Co., sugar dealers, suspended to-day for about $200,000.

Suspicions Looking Transaction.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Monday last Mrs. Sarah M. Sherman, widow, and William B. Duncan, of the firm of Duncan, Sherman & Co., made transfers of real estate in this city to A. Duncan to the amount of $385,000.

Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s Suspension does not Affect the London Market.

LONDON, July 28.—The suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co. has no effect on the general market.

All Right at Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, July 28.—Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s failure has but little effect here. It is reported their shipments of cotton will be well protected.

THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD CUBA.

A Washington letter of July 30, says:

Notwithstanding certain statements made by newspapers, there is nothing new of an interesting character concerning the affairs of Cuba. There is, especially, nothing to give the color of truth to the rumor that England and Germany are co-operating with the United States on pressing the Spanish Government to abandon its West India possessions, with a view to their division among the three powers named, or their organization into a republic, under an expressed or implied protectorate of said powers. Great Britain and Germany have never hinted at a co-operation of the three powers for the purpose mentioned. On the contrary, both Great Britain and Germany have been careful not to offend the sensibility of the United States. The latter had repeatedly declared its immovable adherence to the Monroe doctrine, and both Great Britain and Germany have officially said they will respect it. In 1869, our Government offered its good offices to Spain for the purpose of bringing to a close the civil war in Cuba, on a certain designated base. Spain declined the offer, but proposed a basis of its own, which was declined by the United States, as incompatible with any practicable negotiation. In withdrawing our offer of good offices, our minister to Spain informed that Government, that it would again be made whenever it should tend to a settlement, upon a just and honorable basis, of the unhappy contest in Cuba. Since that time no similar overture has been made, by the United States, nor has Spain intimated that such an offer would be agreeable. It has been ascertained that it is the opinion of leading men in Spain that the bond which unites Cuba with Spain is becoming weaker every day, and that the separation of the island from the mother country is merely a matter of time. There is now no probability that Spain will take any action for the pacification of Cuba apart from that of a resort to force.

New York is to have a centennial in 1877—the battle of Saratoga. That was the leading engagement of the revolution on the soil of New York, and the turning point of the whole struggle. No contest of the seven long years was more brilliant or important. It was fought on the 17th of October, 1777.

Killed by a Boiler Explosion.

SANTA CLARA, July 28.—A field engine exploded this morning on the ranch of Mike Savor, three miles west of town, killing engineer A. Gammock instantly, and seriously injuring Ben. Ricker and Alex. McLeannan.

A Railroad Subsidy.

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—The citizens of San Bernardino have pledged $100,000 to the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad Company if they will diverge their survey to accommodate this place. It is thought twice that sum can be raised.

Punishment for Assault.

John Mayer, found guilty of assaulting Hawley, was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail and $200 fine.

A Splendid Haul—The Notorious Safe Robber and his Band Caught.

DIXON, July 28.—The notorious safe robber, Jack Bowers, known as "Black Jack," with four confederates, were captured last night by Sheriff Perkins, of Solano county, with three assistants. Jack is one of the most expert safe burglars in the State. He has plied his vocation in nearly every prominent town. He was betrayed by one of his gang, induced by the large reward offered. The officers were guided by the confederate to a thicket near the railroad bridge at Davisville, where they found four of Jack's gang, whom they captured, handcuffed and sent to Dixon under charge of Constable Barnes. The other officers rolled themselves in the blankets of the captured men, and when Jack came to camp about midnight, captured him without resistance, and brought him to this place. Sheriff Perkins had been on Jack's trail the last seven months.

A California State Senator Found Dead.

PESCADERO, Cal., July 28.—Senator Finney was found dead this morning, a short distance from his residence, shot through the head from the discharge of a Henry rifle. Nothing definite as to the cause, whether accidental or otherwise.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Democratic Convention—Delegates Arriving—Who is to be the Man?

SALEM, July 28.—The delegates to the Democratic State convention, which meets to-morrow at Reed's Opera House, have nearly all arrived, and, from appearances, there will be an average attendance. The eastern and southern portions of the State both claim the right to the nomination. Knowing ones, however, say that the contest lies between Whitaker, of Lane, and Lane, of Douglas.

It is understood that Ben Hayden, of Polk, will poll a good vote in the convention, and may succeed.

Ex-Congressman Nesmith, who has been quite sick at his home in Polk county, is getting better.

Harvest is just commencing, with good prospects for winter wheat, but the extreme heat of the last two weeks has considerably damaged spring-sown grain. The yield will be about an average.

OREGON.

Salemites gave Mr. Hammond only $16? for his services there.

The river at Salem is at low-water mark, but the steamers Champion and Ohio continue to disturb the gravel some distance above.

The Statesman says some of the young men of Salem are in the habit of sending obscene language through the mails on postal cards.

Some boys carelessly set fire to a grass plat near Gov. Grover's barn at Salem, the other day, and only by extraordinary efforts were the building and contents saved.

A young man named Dudley Gillmore, aged about eighteen, son of the hotel proprietor at Junction City, was drowned in the Willamette river, at the bridge near Harrisburg, on Saturday.

On last Monday the dry grass in the pasture of Mr. Thomas Monteith, just south of Albany, caught fire from the sparks from a passing locomotive, and the flames destroyed 200 yards of fence.

A man who had been working for B. W. Dunn, at North Yamhill, helped himself to $15 belonging to a fellow-laborer, and a revolver and some clothing belonging to Mr. J. Shelton, on last Monday night, and then sloped for parts unknown.

Last Saturday, the 24th inst., a young man named Abraham Starr, living in the forks of the Santiam, near Scio, was kicked by a vicious horse and so badly injured that he died on the following day. Mr. Starr was an industrious young married man and well spoken of by his neighbors. He leaves a young widow to mourn his untimely fate.

The following persons will represent Yamhill county in the Democratic State convention: Dr. Bradshaw, N. H. Newby, C. H. Burch, W. M. Ramsey, J. C. Nelson, and P. M. Scoggins. The county convention took a vote to indicate the preference of the convention for the candidate for congress, with the following result: For Hon. J. W. Nesmith, 29; scattering, 25. It was expressly stated, however, that the vote should not be considered in the light of an instruction to the delegates.

Monday afternoon Linn Nichols and Clarence Hedges left Salem with a load of Singer sewing machines in two wagons for Dallas. They stopped at the watering trough on the side hill to give the horses a drink, and in starting from there the horses became unmanageable. The young men became frightened and jumped out, and the horses being loosened from all control, dashed off at a furious pace. The wagon and machines were literally broken to pieces, and one of the horses was so badly injured that he will probably die.

The Albany Register says: "The question of the construction of a railroad from this city to Yaquina Bay is taking shape. If our people conclude to build it it will be done. And if the Corvallis people fail to make their railroad stick, Linn county will go for the road with a rush. It will not be a very big job, and our people don't hesitate at anything that promises to be remunerative, even if the first cost is a little binding. Our people are determined to have cheap transportation facilities to tidewater, and this route promises to be the best and cheapest in sight."

Letters recently received announce the arrival of Mr. Wm. Gird, of Albany, in the Ochoco valley, to which place he went to look after his live stock. He met with an accident soon after his arrival there, which has confined him to his bed ever since. It seems that he was examining one of his horses, and the animal, becoming a little obstreperous, commenced kicking, Mr. Gird receiving a blow just below the knee, cutting a deep gash and paralyzing the limb. In the absence of a physician he was compelled to sew up the cut himself. He fears the bone is fractured, and will make his way home for medical treatment as soon as he is able to travel.

Mountain Meadows Massacre.

BEAVER, Utah, July 28.

Robert Kershaw Sworn.

Saw the emigrants when they passed through Beaver. They had 31 wagons and numbered over a hundred. They had cash, loose stock, horses and mules. Geo. A. Smith, Brigham Young's counsellor, came to Beaver and said not to trade anything to the emigrants under penalty of being cut off from the church. John Morgan sold them a cheese, and in two weeks was cut off from the church. Smith went south ahead of the emigrants. The emigrants came to the garden of witness and wanted to buy peas, onions and general vegetables. He refused to sell because he had been forbidden to sell to them. Smith spoke on the public square in Beaver. Seth Dodge was at the emigrants' camp at Beaver warning people not to trade with them. Smith said Johnston's army was coming and people needed all the supplies they had, as they might be driven into the mountains. We expected to fight the army. I was a Mormon; am not now.

E. C. Matthews

Sworn—Passed through with a freight train on the south California road, from Salt Lake to California, in 1857; Bishop, Dame and Haight got our mules at Cedar to go ahead of us, he said, to save the emigrants who had been attacked by Indians.

James Pierce.

Was in Payson September, 1857; saw the emigrants there; they were principally men; saw the train again at Mountain Meadows; went from Washington; they were corraled there; went with a party; had a gun; there was talk that the train had been stopped; I was a stranger there; had just come from the north, so the crowd was going up. I went along. It was said some of the old mob that mobbed the Mormons in the West were there; also, that they had poisoned springs and outraged the people; that some of them helped to kill old Joe Smith, and were going to California to raise an army and come back to fight the Mormons. Most of us didn't know what we were going to the Meadows for; some thought to arrest the emigrants, some to sell them. I was Lee there; after being there two days moved out of camp toward the emigrants; I was sick and didn't go; heard guns fired. When they came back they said the emigrants were all killed; saw lots of Indians there; hurrahing around, powwowing also. The morning after the massacre the Indians disappeared from our camp.

E. W. Thompson

Sworn—Saw the train at Beaver. A letter was read in a meeting to the people at Beaver, counselling them not to sell to emigrants generally.

John McFarlane.

Territorial attorney and attorney for Lee, sworn—Mountain Meadows are located all in Washington county, and were in 1857.

Frank King

Sworn—Saw the emigrants at South Pass. They were coming south to Salt Lake; traveled with them two weeks. They had horses, mules and oxen; also about 30 wagons. Recess.

Lee almost Makes his Escape.

At noon to-day suspicions of Lee having received aid to escape jail became so sure as to induce a sudden search. He was accordingly suddenly removed from the cell, and it was searched. He had in his pillow a huge butcher knife; under the mattresses two compasses, to drive in the wall and climb upon; over the door casing, a big butcher knife, long handle, and a small hatchet with the corners broken off fresh, converting it into a stone chisel. In his bed clothing was found one case knife with five saw-teeth for cutting bars, twenty feet of half-inch rope, a small thin case knife without handle, a large gimlet and one box of caps. He had over the window one heavy three-cornered file. The jail is a small square stone building, the cell windows opening out of doors.

Gen. Maxwell has mounted two extra guards and ordered Lee to be searched every time he is moved from jail.

Lee's Old Wife's Story.

Lee's old wife is not to be sworn, but has made a statement to the press reporters. She charges that Lee is the victim to cover Brigham Young, and gives as reasons therefor that for a long time after the massacre Young, when visiting in the south, always stopped at Lee's house and used to hug him in his arms. Two weeks before Lee was cut off from the church Young gave him a tract of land in Colorado, where they now live. She declares Lee a religious fanatic, who of his own nature would harm no one; gentle and kind, but under orders perfectly devoted to obedience.

One of Lee's Wives Assaults His Jailer—He is Placed in Double Irons.

BEAVER, July 28.—After the discovery today of Lee's preparations to break jail orders were issued that no one be allowed to visit him in jail but his attorneys. This evening, Emma, one of his wives, an English gipsy, demanded admission to the jail. The jailer refused, qu

THURSDAY MORNING JULY 29 1875

WORK FOR THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

As the Democratic sanhedrin is to meet at Salem to-day, a few words of counsel even from a gentile like the OREGONIAN, may not be entirely out of place For while the assembled wisdom of the party is not to be influenced by suggestions of any diminutive tubers, either in the concern or out of it, wisdom never disdains advice though it may decline to follow it

It is not our intention to discuss the subject of a candidate, any further than merely to remark as we pass along that there ought to be no difficulty in selecting a suitable candidate, where at least one third of the voters of the party desire the nomination It is with respect to the platform of the party that we would speak There are several considerations that ought to enter into the labors and deliberations of the convention in connection with the manufacture of a platform for that great and glorious party to stand upon In the first place, it should be remembered that the Democratic party is a party of eternal and changeless principles [illegible] traditions of the party, and, for a custom which prevailed in its conventions in past years by declaring the continued and abiding devotion of the party to those time honored principles, as enunciated by the conscript fathers of Democracy This declaration should be plain and unequivocal as becomes men who have a lofty mission in the world such as getting possession of the offices The platform should open with the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1798, which by clear implication, declared the right of a State to secede from the Union whenever it did not like the way the general government was administered This should be fortified by a resolution endorsing the corollary logically drawn from those famous resolutions by that greatest light of Democracy, John C Calhoun that a State legislature has the constitutional right to annul any law of congress, so far as to prevent its enforcement within the territorial limits of the annulling State Then, by a step which might seem a little abrupt to others, but which will be easy enough for the experienced Democrat, the convention should proceed to declare the correctness of Jackson s celebrated fulmination against Calhoun "By the Eternal, the Union must and shall be preserved" Having disposed of that question according to the unchangeable principles of Democracy, the convention should then declare its abiding confidence in the soundness of all the leading doctrines promulgated by those great leaders of the party, James Buchanan, Horace Greeley and Stephen A Douglas And passing to questions that now agitate the popular mind there should be a declaration of the sympathy of the party with the inflation and rag money principles of the glorious party, as declared by the Ohio State convention a few days ago, and with the contraction, hard money and specie payment principle just now announced by the Democracy of Maryland These declarations should not be overlooked, for they would do a wonderful amount of good in showing the public that the great Democratic party is an organization whose principles are without variableness or the shadow of turning

We might make some further suggestions respecting the platform but it is unnecessary There is no occasion for reminding the Democracy of the importance of snatching the queues off the heads of the Chinamen and this, with the cardinal resolutions above suggested, will set the Democratic party in a proper and just light before the world, and whatever the convention may say beyond these resolutions, will be mere padding more or less appropriate, according to circumstances, but not forming an essential part of the Democratic creed

ENCOURAGING PROSPECTS

A prominent gentleman of Washington county writes in a postscript to a private letter The organs of the offete parties may talk as much as they please about Independents going to their old associates but they are not going Washington county will cast a larger Independent vote this fall, in proportion to the whole vote than it did last year when the Independents carried everything on their ticket by an overwhelming majority" This we are assured, is as true of other counties as of Washington The aggregate vote of the State will, in all probability be much below that of last year, but, relatively, the vote for the Independent candidate will be much above that then cast This is the substance of the reports we get from every section of the State Let the Independents see to it, therefore, that they are well represented in the convention, so they may get out a candidate who will fitly represent their views and purposes Let them take care that an unexceptionable man is presented whose moral business integrity and practical ability will challenge the respect of the best people of the State. Nothing short of this will meet the expectations of the public Remember, Independents, the way to secure good nominations is to attend to the matter personally It will take but an hour or two to go out to your mass conventions or primaries

The New York Times London correspondent says a good deal of amusement has been occasioned by the rumored organization of a society of men in that city in opposition to female suffrage The society is to include members of the House of Commons and various other distinguished gentlemen who think it necessary for them to organize for self protection

The failure of the great New York bankers Duncan Sherman & Co which took place on Tuesday may carry down other houses The failure of such a house naturally occasions intense excitement in the city where it takes place and it will be felt more or less in all the other Atlantic cities

A letter from Grant county says the Independents are alive and active in that section and that they expect to carry that county by a handsome majority

THE FAITHFUL IN TRIAL

THE MIDNIGHT CONCLAVE—DOINGS OF THOSE WHO MAKE AND UNMAKE MEN

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

U S SURVEYOR GENERAL'S OFFICE
PORTLAND Monday, July 26
10 30 P M

The most significant meeting that has ever taken place in this city is now holding at this office It is a meeting of the Holladay Hipple ring and most of the active leaders are present The object of the gathering has just been stated informally by a prominent manipulator in reply to the question How does it look? which was propounded by another prominent manipulator The object as stated was to consider the subject of endeavoring to effect a compromise with the Independents and if thought best to devise ways and means to bring that end about The meeting was reminded that a careful canvass of the subject of the approaching election for Congressman and of the state of public sentiment left no room to hope for a Ring Republican victory and that unless some way could be found out to form a coalition of the Republicans with the Independents the Democrats would be very likely to get away with the Congressman and, if they didn't, the Independents would which the speaker thought would be even a greater misfortune to the Republican ring

This statement was received with many interrogations One of the faithful was anxious to know why it was so desirable to go and help the Independents if their success would be worse for the ring than would be the success of the Democratic party Your reporter thought that was a poser but it wasn't The answer was ready, and was in a general way satisfactory. It was said the ring candidate could in no event count on a respectable vote but that by going in with the Independents the edge would be taken off the defeat for the Independent victory would be claimed as a result of Republican votes and in the meantime those Republicans who really preferred a Democratic victory, as the speaker presumed most of those present did, could deposit their ballots for the Democratic candidate and the real Republicans of the State who are Republicans from sentiment would never know of it A lively discussion is now going on over the general proposition some of the faithful favoring and some opposing it One thing that appears to bother them a good deal and which seems to your reporter to be a difficulty at the very threshold is the question whether the Independents themselves can be got into such an arrangement One speaker says he has "felt of some of them" and so far as he has been able to ascertain they would be glad to get all the Republicans to vote for their candidate and would perhaps consider that possibility in the selection of their candidate but that they would not agree to any compromise, nor swerve one iota from their publicly declared policy for the sake of securing the whole Republican strength He thought coalition impracticable Another thought it might be accomplished if it were only taken hold of in the right way, but he did not saw what way was the right way

This is the substance of the proceedings thus far The discussion is still going and is becoming quite animated

LATER.—It is now midnight, and there's music in the air Some of the faithful still urge the policy of experimenting with the coalition question One gentleman urged it very strongly He said "If the disaffection which exists in the Republican party all over the United States is not in some way put down, every man here will lose his office in less than two years from to-day That shot went straight home Every countenance was pale in a second The opposition became weak and spiritless but after a few minutes it appeared again in another form It was suggested that the Independents might be hoodwinked in some way, and be brought by some stratagem to support the ring candidate It was worth while to try, anyhow But that was a forlorn hope and another and the time was too short to permit the laying of pipes and pulling of strings necessary to carry out such a plan if it could be done under any circumstances He was for taking the gill just as it seemed to be presented to them He was for falling in with the Independents and ostensibly at least supporting their candidate with the hope by that means of getting into such relations with them as would lead to future co operation under the Republican flag There was one individual, however who still persisted in opposing every form of coalition That individual got much excited and swore he would be eternally blanked if he would ever consent to recognize the blanked Independent crowd and that he would see such blanked sanctimonious scoundrels — with a furtive glance at a gentleman with exaggerated beard—as H Y Thompson, Geo H Durham A C Gibbs, Jos Buchtel, and one or two others, whom he named, as far as blank as a pigeon could fly in a week before he would allow them to have anything to do with running the Republican party At this point a meek mannered little man with a mustache not unlike the tail of an Ohio gray squirrel mildly suggested that the sanctimonious scoundrels referred to had got of late exhibited any very decisive symptoms of a disposition to run the Republican party which pleasant little sally so exasperated the excited individual, that he indulged in much more of the same style of discussion as before and at last became so boisterous raised so loudly and gesticulated so savagely, that several persons expressed alarm and the gentleman with the exaggerated beard ventured to remonstrate

But look here Ben,' he put in just as the irate ring leader was nearing the summit of a cloud-capped height of rage but look here Ben'—

No I won't look here, Ben neither, by blank I won't' It shan't be done' Not for Joe' I am not to be bamboozled—

But Ben I say' be reasonable broke in the remonstrant

No you don't yelled the perturbed statesman you want to sell out the Republican party and I'll be blanked if you can do it while I'm Surveyor General' It's all well enough to say be reasonable' but what is going to become of the offices' what is going to become of the swag? In the name of that reason you babble about, what is going to become of the Republican party' No sir I'll be blanked if I'll be reasonable, under such circumstances'

Just here a poorly suppressed laugh went round the room which seemed to have arisen from nothing at all at least nothing could be seen by your reporter to justify it But in a moment all was explained Collector Scott who once named Ben Simpson's crowd the Mercenary Brigade had whispered to Hipple that Ben was a most zealous Republican now as he used to be a Breckinridge Democrat or was he a Johnson Democrat in the great fight of old Andy aga nst the Republican party and the palpable hit flashed electrically round the room breaking in a ripple of genuine appreciation over the pale countenances of the affrighted office-holders and lighting them up for a moment with something like the light of old days

STILL LATER—The clock in the tower of the Odd Fellow's Temple has just sounded the hour of one The stars look down serenely and the moon now rising above the high wall of the Cascade range shoots its beams in through the window to vie with the gas light which has burned brightly all the night as gaslight always burns when government foots the bills But the forces of the crowd about me do not sympathize with the serenity of the surroundings Not any They indicate a perturbed state of mind The meeting has busted Another effort will be made to morrow but the faithful have little faith in the result Not this meeting alone but the whole enterprise is busted and the meeting to morrow night will only demonstrate that it is busted for keeps

The most horrible stories ever told of the bloody deeds of the Indians in the pioneer days of the Atlantic States are nothing to compare to the sickening details of the Mountain Meadows slaughter If the evidence in this case fails to rouse the indignation of the people of the United States to the point of bringing to justice the whole crew of the Mormon leaders there is no use in talking about the existence of any sense of justice in the human heart Nothing less than the lives of two or three score of the highest authorities of that crime against civilization which we call the Mormon Church ought to be accepted as a sufficient expiation of this horrible deed If the United States Government has not now sufficient provocation to sweep the whole infamous system out of sight, it is difficult to imagine what would be provocation

Readers of the OREGONIAN will observe that the length of time required for the transmission of the special dispatch from the Surveyor General's office which we publish this morning has been entirely disproportionate to the distance The explanation of this is that certain events have caused the wire between our office and the ring headquarters to work badly The fact is the wire itself is a private enterprise of the OREGONIAN and in order not to lend the ring into the temptation to pull it down we encased it in a coating of congealed gum drawn from the sappy trees of the Orient' and buried under ground just as was the practice some years since in the case of certain passenger railways leading toward Canada This plan works pretty well but occasionally something gets out of order causing delay

On the 14th inst the committee on Female Suffrage of the Connecticut Legislature reported favorably a bill giving women the right to vote in the next Presidential election

A census is now taking in the city of New York and is nearly completed From returns thus far it is estimated the population of the city is not less than 1 200,000

The President has appointed Capt Chas Hopkins of Walla Walla Marshal of Washington Territory A good appointment in every way

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1875.

CITY.

A THIEF CAUGHT.—Last Saturday evening two men called at the residence of Mr. E. W. Dunn, who lives on the north fork of Yamhill river, and asked if they could remain over night at his house. Both men appeared to be honest laborers, and as they were in quest of work and weary with the day's walk, Mr. Dunn readily consented, and told them that they were welcome to stay that night. Next morning the men desired to remain over until Monday morning, and Mr. Dunn gave them permission. Mr. Dunn is engaged in digging wells, and has in his employ several men. One of the men became sick on Sunday, and was unable to resume work on Monday. Thomas Brown, one of the two men who stopped at Mr. Dunn's house, proposed to take the place of the sick man—an offer which was gladly accepted. Monday morning Brown went to work, while his companion took his departure for parts unknown. Brown worked steadily all day with the other men, and retired to bed on Monday night with the rest of the laborers. Tuesday morning Mr. Dunn discovered that his watches, on rising, that Brown had left sometime during the night. An examination of the room occupied by Brown disclosed the fact that the bedclothes were missing, as were also a pair of trowsers, a hat, shirt, pistol, valise and $15 in money belonging to one of the men. Supposing that Brown had started for Portland with his booty, Dunn started on Tuesday for this city in pursuit. He arrived here and reporting immediately to the police headquarters, gave a minute description of the thief. After remaining in the city a short time and obtaining no clue whatever as to the whereabouts of Brown, Dunn returned home. Yesterday morning Officer Gritzmacher, while patrolling his beat, observed a man answering the description furnished of Brown, and determined to watch his movements. He saw the fellow, who proved to be no other person than Brown, enter a junk store and endeavor to trade off a pair of pants. Brown succeeded in exchanging trowsers, but he pocketed a pistol and endeavored to sell it. Gritzmacher was so well convinced that the fellow was the thief described by Dunn, that he arrested him and took him to jail. Brown had with him a small bundle, and on opening it a shirt and several other of the missing articles were found. On searching his person, the sum of $7 45 was found. At one time the prisoner stoutly denied all knowledge of and participation in the theft; but at length he confessed the whole matter. Was committed to jail, and Chief Lappeus sent a telegram to Dunn apprising him of the arrest of his man. The sheriff and Mr. Dunn will doubtless arrive here to-day, and the prisoner will be transferred to the county of Lafayette to await the action of the grand jury. Brown is a German by birth and sailor by occupation.

FIRES OR FIRE—PROPERTY DESTROYED.—Large volumes of black smoke could be seen yesterday and last evening rolling skyward from the wooded hights northwest of the city, betokening the presence of the traditional fiend, who, it was plainly evident, was making off the heavy timber in that direction. This fire, we learn, has been raging more or less vigor for some days past, having first been started nearly two weeks ago. Considerable damage has already been done to property and more threatened. The fire is said to have originated by the settlers who are engaged in opening the new road from Portland to Springville burning the logs and brush. When first seen burning in the timber it was at a point about four miles from the river bank, in a northern direction, and continued to burn and spread to the east, encircling in its fiery embrace a large extent of woods. The destroyer finally crossed the high and heavily wooded hills and "went west" for the timber beyond. In its course it destroyed all the hay on the farm of a Mr. Richard Clay, the barn, hay and about 80 acres of fence belonging to another man, whose name we have not learned. At present writing the fire is still spreading and menaces the farms in the vicinity; and unless some effort is made to check its fiery course, we shall expect soon to hear of more property being destroyed. Should it reach the immense quantities of cord wood which cover the hills to the west of the city, a decided rise in the price of fuel may be anticipated.

DIED FROM THE INJURIES.—A few days since we made mention of the fact that a man was brought over from Vancouver, and placed in St. Vincent's hospital for medical treatment. The person spoken of proved to be Mr. Jacob Kiippel, a brother of Hon. Henry Kiippel, of Jacksonville. Mr. J. Kiippel has resided in Idaho, near Lewiston, for some time, where he owned extensive mining interests. A few months ago he received serious injuries while engaged in superintending mining operations. On obtaining relief at Lewiston, he came down to Portland, intending to go to San Francisco to receive the required medical attention. He arrived here last week, and was placed a patient at the hospital, where he decided to remain until the departure of the steamer for San Francisco. Ever since being confined in the hospital, notwithstanding he received careful and skillful medical treatment, Mr. Kiippel continued to grow worse, and died on Tuesday at that institution. Mr. E. Poudray, who is in the city, received a dispatch on Tuesday evening from Hon. H. Kiippel, at Jacksonville, requesting him to superintend the funeral obsequies of his deceased brother, as he was comparatively a stranger in Portland. In compliance with the request, Mr. Poudray had the remains buried yesterday afternoon. Deceased was a gentleman of sterling integrity, and an active, enterprising man of business. His death will be greatly regretted by all who knew him.

IRRIGATION AGITATED.—A meeting of the Portland Firemen's Association was held last night at the police court-room. A communication was received from the secretary of the Vigilante Co., No. 1, inviting the members of the association to attend the celebration of the anniversary of that organization, and participate in the exercises of that occasion. The communication was read, and, on motion, the invitation was accepted. No other business was transacted, and the association adjourned.

MAJOR WALKER'S REMAINS.—The following order has just been issued by Gen. Howard: The remains of Major and Paymaster John M. Walker, lost at sea in January, 1873, having been recovered, will be taken to Fort Vancouver, where they will be received and buried with appropriate military honors by the garrison of the post. The funeral ceremonies will take place at 11 o'clock A. M., the 2d proximo. All officers of the army in this city are desired to attend."

DISASTROUS FIRE.—A destructive fire occurred a few days since at what is known as Dry Town, between Walla Walla and Wallula. By some means fire was communicated to a wheat field, and resulted in great destruction to the grain. One man, we learn, lost 30 acres of grain, which was about ripe and ready for harvesting. Considerable fencing was also destroyed.

WORSHIP AT TRINITY CHURCH.—This afternoon at 5 o'clock, a young gentleman connected with the Oregon steamship line, will be united in marriage to one of Portland's fair daughters, the ceremony being performed at Trinity church by Rev. John Robertson. In the evening the wedding party will sail on the outgoing steamer for San Francisco.

FAILED TO REACH LEWISTON.—By telegraph we learn that the boat which started from Wallula on Monday, bound for Lewiston, failed to reach her destination in consequence of the low stage of water. The boat ascended as far as Fishhook Rapids, when finding the water too low to proceed further, she was compelled to return to Wallula.

WILL MEET.—This evening there will be a meeting of the trustees of the Exempt Firemen's Association at the council chamber at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

MILITARY MATTERS IN ALASKA.

AN IMPORTANT MILITARY ORDER RELATING TO THE COMMERCIAL INTERESTS OF ALASKA ISSUED BY CAPT. JAS. B. CAMPBELL.—A SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER BY GEN. O. O. HOWARD.

Captain Jas. B. Campbell, of the Fourth Artillery, commanding at Sitka, Alaska, has issued the following order, which is doubtless of much importance to traders in that Territory, and those who propose going there for trading purposes:

I. By direction of the President, the undersigned hereby assumes the duties and functions of Indian agent for the Territory of Alaska, including the Aleutian islands.

The laws of the United States relating to trade and intercourse with Indians will hereafter be rigidly enforced in Alaska and outlying islands. Alaska and the islands along its coast are all adjudged to be Indian country under the law.

II. The following extracts from the revised statutes of the United States relative to trade, intercourse and residence, are published for the information of all concerned:

SEC. 2111.—Any person who sends any talk, speech, message or letter to any Indian nation or tribe or chief or individual, with an intent to produce a rupture with or infraction of any treaty or law of the United States, or to disturb the peace and tranquility of the United States is liable to a penalty of two thousand dollars.

SEC. 2113.—Any local person, a citizen of the United States of good moral character, shall be permitted to trade with any Indian tribe, upon giving bond to the United States in the penal sum of not less than five nor more than ten thousand dollars, with at least two good sureties, to be approved by the Superintendent of the district within which such person proposes to trade, or by the United States District Judge or District Attorney for the district in which the obligator resides, renewable each year, conditioned that such person will faithfully observe all laws and regulations made for the government of trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and in no respect violate the same.

SEC. 2132.—No person shall be permitted to trade with any of the Indians in the Indian country without a license therefor, from a Superintendent of Indian Affairs, or Indian Agent or Sub-Agent, which license shall be issued for a term not exceeding two years for tribes east of the Missis-ippi and not exceeding three years for the tribes west of that river.

SEC. 2132.—Any Superintendent or Agent may refuse an application for a license to trade if he is satisfied that the applicant is a person of bad character, or that it would be improper to permit him to reside in the Indian country, or if a license previously granted to such applicant has been revoked or a forfeiture of his bond incurred. But an appeal lies from the Agent or Superintendent to the Commissioner of Indian affairs.

SEC. 2131.—The Superintendent of the district shall have power to revoke and cancel any license to trade within the Indian country, whenever the person licensed has, in his opinion, transgressed any of the laws or regulations provided for the government of trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, or whenever, in his opinion, it is improper to permit such person to remain in the Indian country. No trade with the tribes shall be carried on within their boundary except at certain suitable and convenient places to be designated from time to time by Superintendents, Agents and Sub-Agents and to be inserted in the license. The person granting or revoking such license shall forthwith report the same to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for his approval or disapproval.

SEC. 2133.—Any person other than an Indian who shall attempt to reside in the Indian country as a trader, or to introduce goods or to trade therein without such license, shall forfeit all merchandise offered for sale to Indians, or found in his possession, and shall moreover be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars.

SEC. 2134.—Every foreigner who shall go into the Indian country without a passport from the Department of the Interior, Superintendent, Agent, or Sub-Agent of Indian Affairs, or officer of the United States Army of the nearest military post on the frontier, or who shall remain incautiously therein after the expiration of such passport, shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars. Every such passport shall express the object of such person, the time he is allowed to remain and the route he is to travel.

SEC. 2145.—Except as to crimes, the punishment of which is expressly provided for in the title, the general laws of the United States as to the punishment of crimes committed any place within the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, except the District of Columbia, shall extend to the Indian country.

SEC. 2147.—The Superintendent of Indian Affairs and the Indian Agents and Sub-Agents shall have authority to remove from the Indian country all persons found therein contrary to law; and the President is authorized to direct the military force to be employed in such removal.

SEC. 2148.—If any person who has been removed from the Indian country shall thereafter at any time return or be found within the Indian country, he shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars.

SEC. 2150.—The military forces of the United States may be employed in such a manner and under such regulations as the President may direct—

First—In the apprehension of any person who may be in the Indian country in violation of law, and in conveying him immediately from the Indian country by the nearest convenient and safe route to the civil authority of the territory or judicial district in which such person shall be found, to be proceeded against in due course of law.

Second—In the examination and seizure of stores, packages and boats authorized by law.

Third—In preventing the introduction of persons and property into the Indian country contrary to law.

Fourth—And also in destroying and breaking up any distillery for manufacturing ardent spirits set up or continued within the Indian country.

III.—All persons desiring to trade in Alaska Territory will at once make written application, to the undersigned for a license, stating the name and residence, and the particular locality at which they wish to transact business. The application must be accompanied by a bond in the "penal sum of five thousand dollars" duly executed by the applicant as principal, and two sureties. If not known to the undersigned the sureties must be approved and vouched for by the United States district judge, or United States district attorney for the district in which the obligor resides. The condition of the bond must be that the principal will faithfully observe all laws and regulations made for the government of trade and intercourse with Indians in Alaska, and in no respect violate the same. This bond will be renewed every year. If the applicant is a naturalized citizen he will present his naturalization papers with his application. Unnaturalized foreigners cannot procure license.

J. B. CAMPBELL,
Captain 4th Artillery, Commanding Sitka, Alaska, and Indian Agent for Alaska.

GEN. HOWARD'S ORDER.

The following order has been issued by Gen. Howard, and will be forwarded at once to Capt. Campbell, at Sitka:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF COLUMBIA,
PORTLAND, July 28, 1875.

To the Commanding Officer, Sitka, Alaska—SIR: The department commander instructs me to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 14th inst., covering post orders No. 96 of the 12th inst., and to reply that he deems it wise on your part to publish, as you have done, extracts from existing laws that evidently apply and should be enforced in Alaska Territory, which is construed as "Indian country" under the decision of the attorney-general of the United States. He directs you to suspend the operation of the third section of your order, so far as it relates to the bond in the "penal sum of $5,000," with reference to existing traders, including unnaturalized foreigners. As these traders have gone to Alaska without understanding that this law applied to them, and have already invested their means, many of them being unable to furnish the requisite bond, it is believed that the government may in equity regard this law, now for the first time put into actual execution, in the nature of an ex post facto law, and may relieve existing traders from its execution, so long as in other respects they conform to the letter and spirit of the laws affecting them.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
H. CLAY WOOD,
Assistant Adjutant General.

HANDSOME PRESENT.

On Tuesday evening of this week, at a meeting of Ellison Encampment No. 1, I. O. O. F., in this city, P. C. P. Edward H. Stolte was presented with a handsome regalia of the order and of the degree to which he has attained, by his brethren of the Encampment. The presentation speech was made by A. J. Marshall, M. W. G. P., who said:

Past Chief Patriarch E. H. Stolte: Your conduct as an Odd Fellow has won for you the highest regard of the brothers of our beloved order, and especially is this so among the members of Ellison Encampment. You have occupied the chair of the chief patriarch of this Encampment two terms. This of itself is significant, and I am pleased to say that you have presided over the Encampment with credit to yourself and honor to the brotherhood; and a large number of your brothers, sharing this feeling with me, unite in presenting you this beautiful testimonial of our respect and esteem for you. My brother, you will perceive that this regalia is one known among the fraternity as the combination collar, and is of the finest workmanship. You are entitled to wear it in every branch of our order, and as you look upon its different colors, united and blended into one perfect whole, it should remind you that the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth, combined with Faith, Hope and Charity, are the beautiful and perfect parts of the character of the true Odd Fellow. Receive it, my brother, and prize it not so much for its intrinsic value, as the feeling which prompt the donors in making you the recipient upon this occasion. And in conclusion, my brother, permit me to say that it is the wish of your brothers that the close of your life may be as bright and beautiful as this emblem of their friendship for you.

Mr. Stolte was much and agreeably surprised at the mark of favor and the appreciation in which the gift proved that his friends held him, but having collected his thoughts and calmed his feelings, replied in a felicitous manner to the address of Mr. Marshall. The whole affair was well conducted and proved a source of pleasure to all the members present.

THE STAGE.

The Fulford troupe were at Yreka on the 22d inst.

Morrell's Minstrels are proceeding southward—now below Harrisburg.

The McGinley Sisters are directing their way toward Portland, from Idaho.

The Lingards, with Howard Paul, at San San Jose, Cal., to-morrowing evening.

Daly's Fifth Avenue Company are producing Chantz, Man and, Wife, Big Bonanza, at Maguire's Opera House, San Francisco.

In a letter to Figaro we observe the following from Mr. D. G. Waldron, manager, dated at Victoria, July 16th. Evidently they turn out well over there. We trust Mr. Waldron may be able to write from here in the same spirit: "Opened on Monday, 12th, to a $430 house at $1 admission. The Theater Royal is an old rickety place. The building and ground are owned by Dave Higgins, he who used to be on the S. F. Call in days of yore. He is now, the publisher of the Daily Colonist. On Wednesday the Alleghanians were honored with the patronage of the lieutenant governor and suite, and on Thursday evening, Rear Admiral Cochrane and officers of H. M. royal navy, were in attendance. The theater was crowded on both occasions. We will clear about $1,000 above our expenses in this city, have left a first-rate reputation."

AMUSEMENTS.

Last evening the Alleghanian vocalists and swiss bell ringers appeared for the third time at the New Market Theater. The attendance was fair, considering the fact that many are away from the city, and the excessive heat, which alone has a tendency to injure indoor amusements, no matter how meritorious the performances may be. A change in the programme was duly appreciated. As the public become better acquainted with the character of the entertainments given by the Alleghanians, they will attend in greater numbers. Everything is done in a pleasing manner, and certainly should meet with the reward. The troupe will remain but a few nights longer. A grand matinee for the ladies and children is announced for Saturday. An increase in the attendance at the closing concerts of this excellent troupe may be anticipated.

BALL AND BAT.

Below is a record of the games played by the Atlantic base ball club, of this city, during this season. The club has disbanded on account of some of the best players leaving the city: April 17, Atlantics 72, Young Americas 55; May 30th, Atlantics 30, Alerts (of Milwaukie) 19; June 27th, Atlantics 61, Young Americas 19; June 29th, Atlantics 9, Alerts (of Milwaukie) forfeit 0; July 5th, Atlantics 36, Multnomahs 26. This last game was to decide the three. The following are the Atlantic nine: L. Lakin c., E. L. Backenstos p. (captain), C. Lakin s. s., R. Rhodes 1-b., J. Knox 2 b., W. Chapman 3 b., F. Gilmer l. f., E. Arpin c. f., M. Lauderkin r. f.

THE NORFOLK DISASTER.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE CATASTROPHE BY THE CAPTAIN OF THE ISAAC BELL—THE CRIMINAL RECKLESSNESS OF A PILOT—NINE LIVES LOST.

The steamer Isaac Bell struck and sank the tugboat Lumberman off Sewell's Point, Va., on Monday evening, July 5th. Captain Lawrence, of the Isaac Bell, gives the following account, of the disaster:

The Isaac Bell left Norfolk on Monday evening about 9 o'clock, and proceeded on her usual course down the harbor. The night was dark, but there was no obscurity by fog or otherwise, and it was a perfectly good night for navigation. He had been out about three-quarters of an hour when a light was seen on the starboard bow. The Isaac Bell was then nearly off Sewell's Point, and the shore was on her right about a mile distant. The Lumberman was between the shore and a line describing the course of the Bell, and was going in the direction of Norfolk. Captain Lawrence was in the pilot-house at the time, together with the quartermaster, who was at the wheel, and the first officer, and both the captain and the mate were observing the movements of the tugboat with glasses.

As the Isaac Bell neared the Lumberman she blew two signals, indicating that her pilot had made up his mind and wished to keep on his course, and that the Lumberman should pass to the starboard of the Isaac Bell. The tug replied with one signal, when the Isaac Bell changed her course in order to allow the Lumberman to pass to port of the large steamer, as she indicated a desire to do by her reply. Both steamers were going at good speed. When close upon each other, the Lumberman blew two short and sharp signals, conveying to the pilot of the Isaac Bell the information that the tugboat desired to go to starboard or the course first chosen by the Isaac Bell. There was no room for the larger vessel to make the change, but the helm was put hard-a-port; the engines were slowed and backed immediately, and every effort was made by the officers of the Isaac Bell to avoid a collision that seemed to be unavoidable. But a few moments elapsed before the Isaac Bell struck the Lumberman. The passengers on the tugboat were all grouped forward near the pilot-house, and the Lumberman was struck not far from her bow and almost immediately rolled over. It was a glancing blow that capsized her, for not a mark was made upon the bow of the Isaac Bell. The passengers on the little propeller screamed with terror as the two vessels came together, and in an instant all on board were struggling in the water.

Two boats were lowered from the Isaac Bell as soon as possible, and four of the passengers of the Lumberman were picked up. One man was found in the wheel of the Isaac Bell, into which he had climbed after clinging to it for some time. Most of the passengers floated by on the starboard side of the Isaac Bell, and those saved were found under the stern. The steamer laid by for an hour in the hope of recovering more of the unfortunates, when, after an examination of her hull, which showed no marks of the collision, she resumed her voyage. The rescued passengers were put off soon after, and sent back to Norfolk.

BOLD BANK ROBBERY.

THE DARING ATTEMPT TO OPEN A VERMONT BANK SAFE—THE CASHIER OF THE BANK AND HIS FAMILY BOUND AND GAGGED.

About midnight on Tuesday, July 6th, Mr. Charles A. King, cashier of the Barre (Vt.) National Bank, was aroused from his sleep by four masked men, who, after binding and gagging his wife and daughter, and putting handcuffs on him and a halter around his neck, forced him to go and open the bank. When the sleepers were first awakened Mr. King was told to get up and dress, which he did, delaying as long as possible. The burglars tore a pillow case in two strips, made a small gag and put it on Mr. King's mouth. They then requested Mrs. King to get up, which she did, wrapping a sheet around her. One of them took the child in his arms. Going down stairs with the mother and child, leaving Mr. King with a keeper, they placed two chairs in a small bedroom and seated them. Screwing some rings into the floor they strapped their ankles to them with leather straps and tarred ropes, placed handcuffs on their wrists, and otherwise secured them.

Leaving them in care of a young man about twenty years old, charging him to keep a close watch, they proceeded with Mr. King to the bank, one walking some five rods in the front and the other in the rear, while a third led him. The front and rear guard, taking the keys, went to the bank, while he was left behind a short distance. After reconnoitering the premises they returned and took him into the bank. Mr. King opened the vault, taking as much time as he could. Here they found $1,300 in unsigned bills, which had been received from the Government the previous evening. These they immediately appropriated to their own use; also about $30 in revenue stamps. Inside of the vault was a safe secured by a chronometer lock, which had been set to open at nine o'clock Wednesday morning. It contained all the valuables of the bank, some $3,000 in currency and a large amount of bonds. One of the fellows ordered Mr. King to open the safe, when he informed them that it had a time lock. Then they probed the keyhole to see if it could be opened with powder, but finally gave up the work. All this occupied about an hour, after which they took Mr. King back to his house, placed him in a chair beside his wife and child, and strapped him to it and the floor. The gag was then taken out of his mouth, and the family given a glass of milk and water and a cup of cold chocolate, which Mrs. King told them where to find. All of this time there were three lights burning about the house. The burglars were also joking each other and eating and drinking. They finally took their departure about 1:30 A. M., bidding Mr. King and wife "good by" with mock courtesy. They were present about an hour and a-half.

The account of the drowning accident at Fall River (Mass.), on the afternoon of July 6th, is peculiarly saddening. Seven little boys, between the ages of eight and eleven, named William and James Jacques, John W. Fielding, George McManus, William Dyer, Francis Cain and Thomas Dyer, were bathing in the lake about four o'clock. They all took hold of each other's hands and walked out on the bar. When some distance out they divided, three going one way and four the other. They soon got beyond their depth, and before assistance could be got to them they all, with the exception of Thomas Dyer, were drowned. The latter managed to reach the shore again. When their bodies were found their little hands still tightly clasped each other as when they walked joyfully from the shore.

A lately published newspaper directory contains the necrology of one thousand newspapers that have died during the past year, at an aggregate loss to all parties involved of eight million dollars.

In Nebraska more than 12,000,000 forest trees were planted last year.

There is but little news of an exciting nature in the local money market, and, with the limited amount of business of a strictly financial character usually transacted at this point in the season, there is presented but few topics calling for comment. The great bank failure to which we called attention yesterday affects no one here directly, and though it has given gold a little firmer feeling, less not now presumed that any serious results will follow. The fall of such a house most generally leads to the swamping of many less pretentious institutions, and though, so far, these consequences have not been developed in the case of Duncan, Sherman & Co., it is perhaps owing to a fact, which was generally recognized, that all the commercial and financial interests of the country were in a most healthy and prosperous condition, or, at least, the body financial was partially freed from the evils of past overtrading and wild speculations and was being settled on a sounder basis than it had obtained since the war. The results of the panic inaugurated in September, 1873, by the failure of Jay Cook were about overcome, and monetary affairs were assuming an attitude more nearly indicating a healthy growth of all our commercial interests than for years before. This healthy state of finances generally will doubtless be one of the means by which the disasters which might have followed such a failure under other circumstances will in a great measure be averted.

The result of the operation of the new currency act for the past six months, has been an actual increase of bank circulation of $1,974,825, a withdrawal of greenbacks by the treasury of $6,228,420, and a deposit of greenbacks in the treasury to redeem bank circulation of $19,709,666. The net actual change produced by the bill in the amount of currency out is, therefore, a reduction of about twenty-four millions ($22,963,260).

Trade Matters.

There is no unusual activity in any line of trade in our local market and but few changes are to be noted from day to day, nor are many likely to occur until about the middle weeks of August.

There is an apparent strengthening in some all through the line of dry goods, stocks having been worked into close and convenient shape ready for the opening of the fall trade. While the present dull season holds there is nothing to create or support an advance, but it now seems probable that the first appearance of a demand will result in a rather general hardening of values. Those who have carefully watched the market for the past year are in a position to know how largely and steadily prices have declined until they have, in a great many instances, passed below the actual cost of production. It is needless to say that such a state of affairs cannot continue, and that hereafter the supply of goods of this character will be gauged more in accordance with the demand than in the past.

In groceries there is some disposition to advance, and especially so in the leading articles of sugars, coffees and syrups, and fancy groceries remain without material change. The advances in coffee noticed last week are firmly maintained, and owing to the large deficiency reported in stocks in the East prices may keep well up during the entire season. At the quarterly sale of Java at Penang on June 25th the whole offering was taken for the United States at prices showing a large advance over the last sale in March.

There is still quite an active state of trade in agricultural goods of a seasonable character, and unlike dry goods and groceries there is no tendency to higher rates, the actual cost of production having been less in proportion to current prices in machinery and goods of that class than in cotton and woolen fabrics, and in groceries.

Canadian Crops.

Mr. A. S. Gross, of this city, has furnished us the July circular from the office of John McKillop & Co., Montreal, giving detailed statements of the condition of crops, etc., in the dominion of Canada, from which the following conclusions are deduced: Firstly, That on the whole, the coming harvest promises to be an average. Fall wheat and hay are the shortest, but of the latter article there is in Quebec a good deal of last year's crop still unsold, and the deficiency may thus be, to some extent, made up; in Ontario other kinds of fodder have been very generally sown to supply the deficiency. Secondly, That the general condition of the country is such, that it may be questioned if one year's good crop would put matters straight; and lastly that there is apparent great necessity for observing a conservative, cautious policy in all business transactions for some months to come. A great many reports speak of the evident desire of all classes to adopt themselves to existing circumstances. Storekeepers are only sorting up, and consumers are buying to no more than actual necessaries, and this policy generally followed would, to a great degree, tend to restore things to a healthy balance, after the severe financial storm which swept over that country a short time ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Constipation, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Gout, Stomach and Breath, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefit they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY RELIEF OF

Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

Has been widely used during the last twenty-five years, in the treatment of these distressing diseases, and with such unvarying success that it has gained the reputation of being infallible. The shakes or chills, once broken by it, do not return, until the disease is contracted again. This fact made it an accepted remedy, and a specific for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South.

Ayer's Ague Cure eradicates the noxious poison from the system, and leaves the patient as well as before the attack. It thoroughly expels the disease, so that no Liver Complaints, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dysentery or Debility follow the cure. Indeed, where Disorders of the Liver and Bowels have occurred from Miasmatic Poison, it removes the cause of them and they disappear. Not only is it an effectual cure, but if taken occasionally by patients exposed to malaria it will expel the poison and protect them from attack. Travelers and temporary residents in Fever and Ague localities are thus enabled to defy the disease. The General Debility which is so apt to ensue from continued exposure to Malaria and Miasm, has no speedier remedy.

For Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy.
